

CMC Lecture Programme: Lent 2010

Cambridge Muslim College is pleased to announce its public lecture programme for Lent Term 2010. The College welcomes three distinguished speakers, each addressing a timely and pertinent topic.

- 16th February 'Bridging a Path to Discourse: Muslims and Jews in Dialogue'
Professor Jonathan Gorsky (Heythrop College) with a response by Dr Muhammad As'ad Berdine (Director of Cambridge Muslim College)
Graham Storey Room
- 4th March 'The Role of the Mufti in the Modern World'
Mufti Adam al-Kawthari (Director of The Institute of Islamic Jurisprudence)
Lecture Theatre
- 10th March 'Science's Spiritual Quest: The Case of Islam'
Professor Bruno Guiderdoni (Director of Research at the French National Center for Scientific Research and Director of the Observatory of Lyon)
Graham Storey Room

All lectures will be held at Trinity Hall, Cambridge at 6pm

The lecture series is organised in association with Trinity Hall Islamic Society.

ALL WELCOME

www.cambridgemuslimcollege.org